Aliâ€™s Dream: The Story Of Bahauallah

Synopsis

Aliâ™s Dream is the story of Ali, an eleven-year-old boy living in Akka (present-day Israel) in 1912, whose life becomes a quest for the meaning of a mysterious dream. How this dream leads him to understand his Bahai heritage and his own spiritual destiny is the theme of the book. Author John S. Hatcher has woven scenes and fascinating details of the history of the Bahai Faithâ”stories of heroism and heartrending dramaâ”drawing from them universal truths about sacrifice, suffering, and the spiritual qualities required in growing up. Aliâ™s Dream is an adventure into which readers may enter with Ali to seek those qualities and ideals that result from commitment to a cause greater than them. It will give readers a relatable and personal window into a fascinating piece of history as well as a coming-of-age story about what it means to grow up and find oneâ™s place within oneâ™s cultural heritage.
