Dr. Randy Hamilton is the founder of iKids Pediatric Dentistry and Nedac Inc., a dental management company. He received his Bachelor of Science in Finance from Brigham Young University and his Doctorate of Dental Medicine from Nova Southeastern University. Dr. Hamilton specialized in pediatric dentistry at Temple University Hospital. He and his wife Natalie reside in Mansfield, Texas with their four children.

This book is very informative and educational. Doctor Hamilton gives parents a great insight to the different issues that occur with children and their teeth. I highly recommend it to anyone regardless if you have children or not.
