If you want a book for bible study this is the book for you. There is a lot of bible research in this book. If you want to follow along with what the author is taking about you have to research the answer. The book gives you the history of Abraham and Sarah one of my favorite couple. If you like this couple you will enjoy this book.

Speaks to my heart and sums up chapters well. The reader really explores Sarah as a person and the wife of Abraham!

Good study

This looks like it will be a great study for a group of Sr. Ladies at our church. It's not overwhelming and has an interesting perspective. Looking forward to using it in Sept.

This one had more writing than I thought for the description in given....a little disappointed in that

As always Elizabeth George delivers! She is very informative and really leads us into great Bible studies. This is great for small groups as well.
