This book is expensive, large and full of bad addresses. What else the publisher doesn't tell anyone trying to contact a high profile person for any reason, albeit simply a fan or raising money for a worthy nonprofit, is that a huge portion of addresses offered belong to the person's agency. Not do they share the info that most if not all agencies shred or return mail but you never know when you invest in hard copy mail printing, business cards, postage and time, that you have no real chance of reaching anybody that will ever be worth all the effort. I spent a lot of money working with this book, a lot, for nothing, and I'm pretty good, darn good at getting results from query writing. The book sucks. Anybody who bought it should due the publisher. I would if I had time to spare.Claudia Strasbaugh

This is a pretty good book for non-profits. and any person wanting to know what organizations are attached to their celebrity, or for anyone who wants to know more about a celebrity foundation they want to give donations to.

I LOVE this address book. Have got good responses on my autographs too. I am hooked on Celebrity Autographs for my own collection.

The product was as advertised and arrived as scheduled. It suits the purpose for which it was ordered. Definitely would order again.

The book met a lot of my expectations but it needs to have more addresses and phone numbers to contact well-established people.

Great for non-profit organizations to use to raise money. I am a volunteer with the local humane society in a low income county located in northwester North Carolina, and we are in the process of using this book to raise money for a building for us. So the "jury is still out" so to speak, but I think that if used properly by non-profit organizations that this can be a very valuable tool for raising money from celebrities!

Purchased this book for a non profit thinking it would be well worth it. Would have been more cost effective to go online to find the addresses needed. Not only wasted the money on the book but also on the mailings. We have gotten back about 15% so far (and they keep coming) and no response whatsoever from the others. Don't waste your precious resources.
