George Knight, a retired professor of church history at the theological seminary at Andrews University, is a specialist in Adventist history. His many books on the topic span the spectrum from its earliest Millerite roots up through present-day concerns. He has authored and edited more than 70 books in such diverse fields as theology, biblical studies, educational philosophy, Ellen White studies, and Adventist history. In retirement he lives with his wife, Bonnie, in Rogue River, Oregon, where they enjoy nature, family, reading, and just being together.

This is a great addition to our school library.It was just as described and arrived very quickly.Thank You for your outstanding service.
