Wiley Blevins lives in New York, New York. Ben Clanton lives in Seattle, Washington.

My son just turned 5 years old. They do not have a reading program at his preschool yet, but with the help of bedtime reading, Grandma's help, alphabet learning and books like this, my son is getting very confident at reading all by himself. This book is a bit harder than his first beginner books, but with a little help from me he's sounding out the new easy words and feeling great at his accomplishments!

Great book for those just starting to read.

Excellent my grandson really enjoyed my reading to him. He was able to read the story with the help of pictures. Would recommend this book for any young reader.

Great first reader for kids who are learning with phonics. Minimal sight words, illustrations are fun but don't give too many hints about what word should be read.

Good early reader for pre-k/kindergarten age.

just right for practicing readers. also easy for bigger kids to read to little ones.my family likes all the books in this series.

My 6 year old loves this book!

I love this book! It was perfect for our study of guppies and goldfish.
