She has previously worked with her husband to co-author several books on Christian Financial Planning, including the best selling Money Came by the House the Other Day. Her desire was to write a Christian children's book for young girls that taught about God's great love for them as well as address the pertinent subject of a girl's self image. Her intent is to help them see that they are each uniquely beautiful and create

My Review: This is a story about a young princess who knows that she is a priceless treasure and wants every little girl to know that they are too."So dance, twirl, and wear your pearls! Dance with joy, 'cause you're God's precious girl!"Every child should know that they are beautiful for they are God's masterpiece. The most priceless treasure at the bottom of the sea can not match the value that God gives to His children. The author said the most expensive jewels can't compare with your value because that's how much God loves you. His love is wider than the sky, higher than any airplane. This is a great book for every little princess. I highly recommend this book for every home with a little girl and including yourself because God loves you.FTC Disclosure: I received a review copy of this book from the author in exchange for a fair and honest review. I was not monetarily compensated for my opinion in any way.
