Cassandra Mack is a noted speaker on girls empowerment issues and the founder and CEO of Strategies for Empowered Living Inc., a training and development company that offers workshops, keynotes and products that focus on youth development, personal excellence and the empowerment of women. Cassandra is the executive producer and host of The No More Drama Hour of Power, a popular, Internet talk radio show of The New York Carib News.

As the director of a non-profit organization for African American/Black girls, I am always looking for books with activities that help improve the self-esteem of young girls. This book serves as a wonderful curriculum guide for my organization. There are 52 topics which conveniently equate to a topic for each week of the year. The topics provide activities for girls to complete and the activities reinforce the lessons discussed. "Love Yourself Just the Way You Are, You Are Worth the Wait, and It's Okay NOT to Have A Boyfriend" are a few of my favorite topics that are covered. It's an empowering book for girls!

My 12 yr old god daughter read "Cool, Confident and Strong: 52 Power Moves for Girls" in only 2 days! She loved it and I hope the messages stick at this impressionable age.
