Book by Grodner, Reuven

I found this book on my shelf one day and just picked it up to pass the time and have not put it down since. I find for a relatively new beginner of mishna study I found this book to be of great help. Its background writings on every mishna a diligit and a deeper understanding of mishnaic thoughts and concepts. This book goes through great detail in every mishna to explain such things as why the times for shema is set differently by different tanaim. I highly recommend this book to anyone who has no one to learn mishna with as this is the perfect teacher.
