Customer Reviews

A nice simple Islamic book for very young kids. They are hard to find.

Book is fine ut can be better with better covers as in hard cover. the quality of the pages was not great.

Thank you. We love it

It wasn't what I thought.

Islamically accurate (ordered and read for Islamic accuracy) prior to gifting to my nephews. You want to provide your children with good books at a young age to ensure a strong moral base.

However, with any religious related material, it is important to ensure that all of the information is accurate. I can verify that there are no inaccuracies in this book.

I know this is more understandable for muslim kids :-) but I walked out still not knowing the significance of bismillah. I can obviously google it but I would've liked to learn it from this so I can then pass it on to others who know as little as I do about islam. It's a cute book but not for folks who know little about islam.

My son and I read this book together. We both enjoyed it. It reminds us to say Bismillah and be thankful for everything we have.

understand the concept of beginning everything with Allah's name and to understand the value of doing things together and cleaning up after each activity
