Customer Reviews

Robert Andrews is author The Rough Guide to Sardinia and co-author of Rough Guides to England and Sicily.

We just completed a two week trip to Cornwall, and used this guide extensively. We found it accurate and meticulous, a rare event. For travel, our favorites have been the Michelin Green guides because they are light, compact, and carry an extraordinary amount of information. This guide meets all those criteria. We particularly appreciated the maps... so many guides have good information, but no maps... and this really slows a tourist down! Great book!

Received on time. Was exactly what I had expected!

This is a very comprehensive book on attractions and places of interest in Devon and Cornwall. Like all Rough Guide editions, it is very comprehensive and explores attractions, food, and historic sites across the full spectrum of travelers -- from those on a budget to those with money to burn. It also contains excellent practical advice for visits not always found in other guides.
