Customer Reviews

Eric Chaisson holds a doctorate in astrophysics from Harvard University, where he spent 10 years on the faculty of Arts and Sciences. For more than two decades thereafter, he served on the senior science staff at the Space Telescope Science Institute and held various professorships at Johns Hopkins and Tufts universities. He is now back at Harvard, where he teaches and conducts research at the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics. Eric has written 12 books on astronomy and has published nearly 200 scientific papers in professional journals. Steve McMillan holds a bachelor's and master's degree in mathematics from Cambridge University and a doctorate in astronomy from Harvard University. He held postdoctoral positions at the University of Illinois and Northwestern University, where he continued his research in theoretical astrophysics, star clusters, and high-performance computing. Steve is currently Distinguished Professor of Physics at Drexel University and a frequent visiting researcher at Princeton's Institute for Advanced Study and Leiden University. He has published more than 100 articles and scientific papers in professional journals.

Required textbook for my son's class. This isn't the son who is wasting all my money on art textbooks. This is the other one who will live with me forever because life is hard. You know what's hard? Sitting in freeway traffic every day earning money for these damn textbooks!

Great purchase. I will do business with you in the future. Great experience!!!

Book was great and explained thoroughly subject matter

My son loves his magazine. Enough said.

Smart, concise and clear book, very appropriate for a one semester non-science undergraduate Astronomy 101 course. Good images - up to date
