A great guide book -- well organized, concise, descriptions of waterfalls spot-on and directions very accurate. It was tremendously helpful in planning our trip, and was great to have on hand as we made our rounds of some very fabulous waterfalls in central Oregon.

Fantastic book on waterfall hikes in Oregon. We have already done several of the hikes!

Very pleasant read. Useful information with an interesting perspective.

Can't wait to work my way through the book and have some amazing experiences in nature. So blessed to live in such a beautiful state and willing hiking partners.

Very helpful in planning an Oregon site seeing tour.

I went to a talk by the author, and the book is as entertaining as he is in person. Makes me want to hike to all of the falls!

Excellent in detailed information.

Looks like a nice book. Looking forward to using it the spring.
