I'm converting to Judaism and while I iwn the Reform Siddur, I wanted a supplemental Siddur for more at home use. Doorposts fit the bill perfectly. It has everything from Jewish life cycle events, morning and evening prayer, and prayers for anxiety and mourning. The edition I own has Hebrew, transliteration for most of the readings, and English translations, all of which are very helpful to me as a native English speaker who hasn't learned much hebrew. Please, if you're looking for a home Siddur, get this. It's absolutely wonderful.

A wonderful book that spans the range of Jewish ritual blessings one might use in the home and in their personal life. easy to understand and follow, even for the beginner.

Bought second hand, I was delighted to know who the original owner was. Makes the entire purchase one that I appreciate. The prayers are wonderful and the entire purchase a pleasure. There are times in life when you just receive a delightful gift. This was one of those times. Book of prayers for the soul.

"On The Doorposts Of Your House" was presented by my Temple's Brotherhood to a girl during her

'Bat Mitzvah'. We feel it will become a cherished and useful addition to her permanent library, because its content supplies the right words, sentiments and prayers for all occasions of joy, loss, festivity & remembrance that occur throughout life.

A wonderful collection of prayers, poems, psalms, and readings for every significant event in Jewish life. As a composer of Jewish music, I am always looking for new possibilities for musical settings. This book provides much material for me.

This book gave me just what I was looking for - a quick guide and prayer book.

happy with my purchase, every household should have one.

This book has great information and prayers for the holidays and regular days as well. Gave it as a gift for new homeowners and they loved it.
