Customer Reviews

I am happy that Beethoven wrote some sonatas that a near beginner can play. The book arrived in good condition. I had lost my previous copy and now I can continue to play the two sonatas I have learned. They are a welcome change from the Bach inventions that occupy my piano time most often.

expensive

Good arrangements for varying degrees of playing ability.

They somehow managed to collect the most uninteresting pieces Beethoven ever wrote. The same goes for their Mozart collection. There are much better options for beginners. A MUCH better option is Piano Repertoire/Keith Snell series.
