Bermuda Travel Reference Map 1 : 14,500

Synopsis

This small mid-Atlantic island enjoys marvelous weather, the occasional hurricane, and a travel experience that is unsurpassed. This represents our fifth attempt to portray the island, with its narrow roads, picturesque towns, and secluded beaches. This is a doubled-sided map, enabling the island to be shown in excellent detail than any other map. Apart from roads, the map shows the route of the former railroad (now a cycling path), most of the hotels and guest houses, parks, schools, churches and, of course, historic sites and touristic attractions. Inset maps of Hamilton, the capital, and St. George, are included.
