Old Time Radio All-Time Favorites (Smithsonian Collection)

Synopsis

The Smithsonian Institution and Radio Spirits have united to bring you the very finest from radio's Golden Age. The Smithsonian's mission of "the diffusion of knowledge" and Radio Spirits's commitment to "preserving nostalgia radio with leading technology" have resulted in the creation of this unprecedented series. Each radio broadcast has been digitally restored and remastered from original recordings for superb sound quality. Also included is a 48-page historical booklet filled with rare photographs and insightful commentary about the shows, the performers, and the medium. The foreword is written by George Burns, one of the greatest performers of old time radio. Relive a time when radio reigned supreme in the hearts and minds of Americans. Experience the finest in classic entertainment with this unprecedented series from the Smithsonian Collection of Old Time Radio. This collection contains 12 half-hour vintage radio shows on 4 CDs: The Lone Ranger "Gold for Maximillian" (3/27/44) Starring Brace Beemer and John Todd. Customer Reviews

I ordered it for my mother in another state .she was happy but had trouble playing some of the programs.

These were great and really were old radio shows.

Two of the four CDs were missing from their boxes.

ALL-TIME RADIO FAVORITES. The collection was originally released as a 5 cassette set by Radio Spirits. There were three thirty minute shows per cassette. They could have easily fit 3 shows unedited, but instead chose to delete commercials and shorten program closings - all the while passing them off as 'complete shows'. Don't waste your money on this mess.

This is a great collection of what made radio such a creative medium: all the action is "seen" by your "mind's eye"!
