Customer Reviews

BODY BLOW. by Dan Ames John Rockne series # 5. The battering between the sister, Ellen, Chief of Police and John, the brother. You are once again delighted to read more about them. Ellen going for a job interview, and a couple of free rooms, in a small town, with a few days by the lake. Hoping Anna and the kids would come, and of course, John, but he probably hadn't thought of taking Anna on a vacation. Sensitivity and small town they have a case, and calling Ellen and John in , a person missing. He's known as Dynamite, or is it his prized Bronco, or the husband found out. Ellen can't be involved, so she have her chance to visit with Anna, and relax by the pool. Small town and secrets what all will John get into while trying to solve. Another adventure as you read how John works.

Funny reading along so engrossed in the story line, liking the characters, and place and before you know it, it done.

Reads very fast because I cannot put it down. The chacters get better and better. This character is Dan's best.

"Body Blow" is another excellent story by Don Ames in the John Rockne series. While visiting Good Isle with his family, John becomes involved with a retired boxer who was kidnapped. Another very visual story by a master story-teller.

Kind of short, a typical Rockne mystery. Not as well developed as the first four novels and not as engaging. But for 99 cents it's worthwhile.

a relatively short story with a fairly traditional ending for a PI .The tale is breezy and fun to read Fast action packed an easy read. I really enjoyed another of Dan Ames' book. Yes I would recommend this book.

Well written as all of this author' tales are. Packed with action with an easy flowing style.
