Customer Reviews

I am a beginning fingerstyle guitarist and even I was disappointed in the simple and drab hymn arrangements. Most of the songs are arranged in the "Carter style" which can best be described as having a Boom Chuck-Chuck Boom Chuck-Chuck rhythm. I could recognize only three songs which had the Travis style alternating bass rhythm. I grew up with these gospel songs and enjoy singing them but I would have more enjoyment strumming chords than fingerpicking these arrangements. I recommend you look to Craig Dobbins and Rick Foster for elegant arrangements of favorite hymns.

This is one of those books that I regret buying. Thought it would have at least a few nice fingerpicking music pieces that I could enjoy playing but I was wrong.
